

Updates and support

After purchasing our sync•gw server you will receive a confirmation mail. You're then enabled to download your sync•gw software from our download section.

From this moment the free of charge three month support and update period starts.

During this period you may request support and download updates of our sync•gw software. The downloads are not only limited to bug fixes - you may also download any new major and minor releases, new or extended features and enhancements of software packages.

If you're a registered user and has already bought our sync•gw software, you may extend update and support. Please use our contact form.